

smsEarthquake Alert

The USGS currently provides notifications about earthquakes via email only. This web app will allow users to enter a latitude and longitude, a bounding radius, and a magnitude cutoff. A user will then receive text message notifications informing them about earthquakes that happen in their chosen area!

